SHREE SWAMINARAYAN

અસ્મદીયમ્

Dear Devotees,

Diwali came and went. The new year of Samvat 2082 has begun. Wise Haribhaktas must have taken stock of how much they have progressed in Satsang. One has to calculate the profit and loss, right! Maharaj has given us a command, so we must pay attention, mustn't we!

We all, dependents of Shree Narnarayandev, are very fortunate that our new year proves to be supremely beneficial (shreyaskar) and auspicious; such prayers H.H. Shri Maharajshri, H.H. Shri Mota Maharajshri, and H.H. Shri Lalji Maharajshri have offered at the lotus-like feet of Bhagwan. Therefore, Shree Swaminarayan Bhagwan will surely do our welfare; there is no need to doubt it. The "Samaio" "Samaio" is drawing very near. Two hundred years of our Haribhaktas' Sudarshan Chakra, the "Shikshapatri," are being completed. This "Samaio" is to be celebrated in two ways. First, how this occasion, "my occasion," can be celebrated grandly with body, mind, and wealth, and second, the concern (khatko) of how "my life" can be lived according to the Shikshapatri, as per my Maharaj's command.

Let us all participate in the planning of the "Samaio" under the chairmanship of Pu. Lalji Maharajshri, and believing "this is my occasion," everyone please come and take the rare opportunity (alabhyaabha) of your service to grace the event. Maharaj considered us His own and, to take care of our ultimate good (shreyas) and worldly good (preyas), He left us the written document of the Shikshapatri. Today, after two hundred years, it presides as the crest-jewel (shriomani) among our scriptures. So how can we allow any deviation in His command (aagna) and worship (upasana)? Many thanks (dhanyavaad) to all the Haribhaktos in all small and large temples in villages, cities, and suburbs who performed 212 minutes of MahamantraDhun on the occasion of the Samaio. So, come, let us make this "Samaio" a memorable event (sambhaaranu) and feel blessed (dhanyata).

SHIKSHA PATRI

आचार्येणैव दत्तं यद्यच्च तेन प्रतिष्ठितम् ।
कृष्णस्वरूपं तत्सेव्यं वन्द्यमेवेतरत्तु यत् ॥६२॥

Translation : And the form of Shri Krishna that has been given for one's own service (puja) by the Acharya of the Dharmavamsha, or the form which has been consecrated by that Acharya, only that form is to be served. Any other form of Shri Krishna, apart from that, is worthy of paying respects (namaskar) but is not worthy of being served (in personal puja). (62)

Commentary : In this shloka, there are two important points: which form of God should be used for worship (puja), and the definition of the word 'etc.' (referring to rituals). The command is that one should only serve the form given for service by one's Acharya or the form consecrated by him.

Nowadays, many types of imaginary pictures of God are sold in the market, in which no standard or sentiment is maintained. There is no purity in the materials used for printing or drawing them. And such pictures are directly placed in puja or in the shrine (gokh), which is not appropriate. According to the command of the Shikshapatri, a person must bathe, become pure, wear pure clothes, and sit on a pure aasan (mat) on pure ground to perform puja. Therefore, it is undisputed that the form for puja must be pure and tasteful. Before keeping such a form in puja, performing pranapratishta is an important part. Only after such a combination is it kept in puja; otherwise, that form is only worthy of paying respects. When Brahmins conduct a puja, they invoke (the deity) by saying sthapah (establish) and at the end of the puja, they perform visarjan (dismissal). In the same way, for the form to be kept in puja, invocation is done with sutras (verses) like 'etc.' and at the end of the puja, visarjan is performed. The ritual of pratishta (consecration) is indeed part of it. But even for such a form, a preliminary ritual has been prescribed, which will be discussed later.

To maintain some control over the forms kept in puja, two commands are given in this shloka: (1) One should only worship the form given for service by one's Acharya or consecrated by him. (2) That Acharya must be of the Dharmavamsha.

In temples, there are two types of forms of God for worship: chal (movable) and achal (immovable). Immovable forms also include chitrapratima (pictures/images). Acharya Maharaj consecrates and installs such forms through the pratishta-vidhi (consecration ceremony). If the chitrapratima or a metal achal form to be kept in puja or service is as per tradition, the practice is to place it in puja after the Acharya Maharaj has given his consent, and after it has been sanctified by the sight (darshan) and touch (sparsh) near an already consecrated murti (idol). Only after that does the form become worthy of being kept in puja-seva (worship/service).

SHREE SWAMINARAYAN

As mentioned in the 48th Adhyay chapter of Satsangijivan, Shreeji Maharaj himself had decided on the forms for service-puja even before writing the Shikshapatri. He summoned NarayanbhaiSutar from Junagadh and had him make mudramurtis (stamped images), prepared blocks of line drawings of God's forms, and had thousands of murti-mudras (stamps/prints) printed. Since then, these forms were primarily given for service-puja in both desh (dioceses) by the kothar (temple administration). (Somehow, this practice seems to have stopped, and since then, a standard for the forms kept in service-puja and the purity in the depiction of pictures has not been maintained.)

Regarding these types of murtis, Shreeji Maharaj himself says, "It is our command that we will get a murti of Shri Narnarayan written on paper for every Haribhakta (devotee), and you should worship it. And that puja is praman (authorized) by all scriptures, and in the Shrimad Bhagawat too, eight types of murtis are mentioned. Therefore, the chitramurti (image) is also very much authorized. And it is also our command.

All you Hari Bhaktas, do not ever think in your minds that it is just a painting on paper, how will it protect us from kusang (bad company)? Do not ever have such a thought, because we are Satpuruush (True Saint/God), and by our command, if you all keep the puja of Narnarayan, we have a direct mental rapport with Narnarayan. We will tell Narnarayan, 'Maharaj! Whoever, while observing the pancha-vrataman (five primary vows), worships this murti of yours given by us, may you reside in it eternally.' Therefore, we will bind this Narnarayandev with the fetters of love and keep him (in the murti) even by force. Therefore, all of you should know for certain that this murti is Shri Narnarayandev himself. Knowing this, never let a day pass without worshipping the murti. And in the morning, after bathing, perform the puja of God, and only then do other work. And as long as you worship this Narnarayandev while observing the pancha-vrataman, Shri Narnarayan will remain manifest in this murti. This is our command, all should accept it firmly." (Ga.Pra.Pra. 48)

In this shloka, the word 'datta' (given) is also worth pondering. Here 'datta' means 'given'. This implies that the Acharya himself should give the forms for worship-service. If the murti for puja is given at the time of mantra-diksha (initiation), it falls within the meaning of this shloka. Previously, only the ashta-chhap (eight-stamped) murtis were given for puja, the stamps for which were selected by Shreeji Maharaj himself. Such stamps are present in the Ahmedabad and Vadtal temples.

Previously, just like the forms for service-puja, a standard was maintained for the forms to be consecrated in Hari Mandirs. Now, various types of forms have come into existence. Forms that are mostly mentioned in the Vachanamrut and described as "all were wearing white clothes" or as described by Sadguru Premanand Swami, "Shriji always wore white garments, occasionally garments of brocade," have become rare to see.

BLESSINGS AND NECTAR-LIKE WORDS FROM THE MOUTH OF THE 8TH DESCENDANT OF SHREE HARI

- Compilation : Gordhanbhai V. Sitapara (Hirawadi, Bapunagar)

Veer Hanumanji Maharaj (On the occasion of the installation ceremony of the victory pillar for the Yagna Mahotsav marking the Shatamrut Patotsav (175 years) of Asarwa Gurukul, Date: 5-9-2025): We are all very fortunate that we get the opportunity to take part in such big occasions time and again. Hanumanji Maharaj that Ayodhyaprasadji Dada (ancestor) has given us. As far as I believe, there are very few temples where Dada's (Hanumanji's) murti has not been moved. The place where Ayodhyaprasadji Dada consecrated it, remaining right there, Hanumanji Dada has been granting us divine darshan for the last 175 years. And it is the tradition of the Ahmedabad desh (diocese) that siddhant (doctrine) comes first. We do not make any compromises in siddhant. When it comes to Dev (deity), when it comes to God, when it comes to the scriptures, when it comes to the original doctrines of the Sampraday, there is no lapse of any kind, in any way, anywhere. Whatever commands Maharaj has given, whatever siddhants Maharaj has given us, we have been adhering to those siddhants for the last 200-plus years, and that itself is our biggest asset. Because as time wears on, there tend to be compromises somewhere or the other in the siddhants, the rules, and the commands given by Maharaj. But we are all very fortunate, and it makes us proud that our Ahmedabad desh's saints and Hari Bhaktas have all united and have been making tireless efforts through such festivals to please God.

As we are about to celebrate 175 years of Hanumanji Dada, we are going to benefit from this festival very soon. Sha. Swami Nirgundasji Swami narrated the entire history of this land and of Dada's murti. We must understand that history, and especially, we must understand this history and bring our future generation, our sons and daughters, here for darshan. It is not necessary to bring them only on Saturdays.

You can bring them anytime, but we should come here, have darshan of Dada, and make an effort so that the glory of this land and of Hanumanji, who is our Kul Devata (family deity), is instilled in the lives of our sons and daughters. It is for this very reason that we are celebrating this festival with such fanfare. Because we have to make an effort so that the history of this place and of Hanumanji Dada reaches every person.

So, all the Hari Bhaktas who have done seva (service) for this festival and for the victory pillar, congratulations to them. And still, for those Hari Bhaktas who have not yet done seva, there is a request to please do whatever small or large seva you can, with your tan, man, dhan (body, mind, wealth). Because this festival is to be celebrated knowing it as our own, believing it as our own. On today's occasion, as saints and Haribhaktas have gathered in such large numbers, we pray at the feet of God that our festival, this 175-year festival of Dada, is celebrated with great fanfare and in a good manner. With this prayer, may Maharaj bless all the Haribhaktas who have done small or large seva. Such is the prayer at the feet of Narnarayandev.

Shri Swaminarayan Mandir Kankaria, on the occasion of Shikshapatri Bhashya Saptah Parayan, Date: 8-9-2025 : We are all fortunate, we get the chance to benefit from such utsav-samaiyas (festivals and gatherings), and that too on such a large scale. We started with the Parva (grand festival), and after that, one major festival after another has taken place in the Ahmedabad desh. And this samaiyo (gathering) is important because the Shikshapatri is the only scripture handwritten by Swaminarayan

Bhagwan himself. As it completes 200 years, the Shikshapatri and the commands Maharaj has given in it should reach every person, and every person should implement those commands in their life.

So that people's lives improve. Because Maharaj didn't just focus on moksha (liberation), but if there is any means to become happy in this world as well, it is the Shikshapatri. It is Maharaj's own promise that whoever follows this Shikshapatri will become mahasukhiya (greatly happy) in this world and the next. This is something to be understood well, and Maharaj has given us a very simple tool. Let's follow it. And nowadays, people are circulating modified versions in the market. In their own ways, but we don't need to go into that. We have to stick to the original siddhant (doctrine) we have received, the original Sampraday (fellowship) we have received, and the original pranalika (tradition).

Less than six months remain for the samaiyo, which we are to celebrate with great fanfare, starting from Muli. On the day of Vasant Panchami, the patotsavabhishek (anniversary consecration ceremony) of Radhakrishnadev who resides in Muli, the Vasant Panchami festival, and then the program from the evening. From January 23rd to 27th. It is to be held at the same venue where the Parva was celebrated in Ahmedabad, and preparations for it have also begun. Work on the ground will start soon. Volunteer forms have also been released. In celebration of the samaiyo, all activities are happening with fanfare. Just recently, we benefited from the 212-hour continuous dhun (chanting) at the Kalupur temple. Hari Bhaktas from more than 250 villages, from different regions, be it North Gujarat, Muli, or Bhuj, devotees came from every region and took part. And now, dhun is going to take place in every village, a smaller version of which has been started. A dhun of three and a half hours, meaning 212 minutes, will be held in every village and every city. And this work is being done not just by the Kalupur temple, but by the wish of the Hari Bhaktas, it is the enthusiasm of the Hari Bhaktas, their dedication to the Dev (deity). It is their affection for the Sampraday, that such festivals take place. When we maintain unity and the saints-devotees work to please the Dev, then this work becomes successful.

Just as I arrived, I spoke with Abhishek Swami, and told Mahant Swami that once winter sets in a bit, once it gets cold, in celebration of the samaiyo, we are to organize a very big Shakotsav (vegetable festival) for this area – Kankaria, Maninagar, and all the small and large surrounding areas. On this pretext, all Hari Bhaktas can gather. The activities we are to undertake for the samaiyo should reach everyone, and more and more people should join the samaiyo. For this, we want to organize a Shakotsav. The date for it will be announced. After Diwali, there will be sabhas (assemblies) and youth camps in all areas of Ahmedabad, please take note of this.

Especially, here in the courtyard of the Kankaria temple, you have listened to such a wonderful katha (discourse) on the ShikshapatriBhashya. Congratulations to all the yajmans (hosts) who have taken part. Shastri Swami announced it, and many people have also started registering their seva (service/donation) for the samaiyo. No amount is small or large. We should contribute to please God, not to show off to anyone. Not in a way that “he pledged 11 lakhs, so I will pledge 12 lakhs,” but according to the strength and capacity God has given us, we should pledge to please God. If we do that, even 1 rupee contributed will be equal to a crore (10 million) rupees. We all who have gathered here in such large numbers, with devotion and enthusiasm, we have faith in the Dev and that is why we are in the Sampraday. With this same devotion, we have to do seva for the samaiyo. We have to do seva for the salvation of our jiv (soul), and for the well-being of ourselves and our families. Congratulations to those who have done seva, and there is still a lot of time. Whichever Hari Bhaktas wish to, please pledge your seva. We are to organize a festival and activities through this samaiyo the likes of which Hari Bhaktas may have never seen. And for that, everyone's support and cooperation will be needed, so there is a special request to do seva. May this same enthusiasm remain in our area and may the temples continue to progress. Such is the prayer at the feet of Narnarayandev.

FROM THE BLESSINGS OF H.H. SHRI
GADIWALASHRI ON THE OCCASION OF EKADASHI SATSANG-SABHA
(KALUPUR MANDIR-HAVELI) "MAKE
EFFORTS TO RETAIN SELF-REALIZATION"

(Compilation: Kotak Varsha Natwarlal - Ghodasar)

Lately, I have been meeting some women who constantly have thoughts of committing suicide. Never have such a thought. Whatever happiness and sorrow come into our lives, it is happening by God's will. If we understand it as God's will, then everything becomes acceptable. For any reason, never, ever have the thought of suicide in life. Such a thought should not even arise. And when such an adverse situation arises in life, do not take any decision then, because the detachment that comes in such an adverse situation Chit - means Knowledge-Vision, to see-know, the knower-seer. is a momentary detachment. We hear about Anand - means supreme bliss, it is the inherent quality of the atma. "fleeting detachment," "crematorium detachment." Similarly, the detachment that arises due to circumstances in such situations is momentary. Therefore, be very careful. When the thought arises, pause for a bit, think calmly. Do not take any decision. If you can't sleep, don't take sleeping pills either. Chant on the mala (rosary). Keep two malas separate: one for puja and keep the other near your bed. Chant on the mala anytime for peace of mind. Even if you fall asleep while chanting on the mala or while listening to katha (discourse), you will get sleep. Don't keep sleeping pills in the house at all. If you have some major problem and the doctor has mandated taking sleeping pills, then it's fine. This world is like a stage. Everything is continuously going on like a play. All the jivas (souls) in this world come to play their respective roles. When the play ends, they disperse. This stage will always remain active. We are all puppets. The strings are in God's hands. You all must have seen a movie sometime. In a movie, if something comes up where someone dies, we become sad. It's all false. Even when we know this, we still feel like crying. We believe it to be true for a little while. If someone dies in a movie, do we observe sutak (ritual mourning)?! Then why do we cry? We must live detached from this world. Although it is not possible to remain completely detached like King Janak, we can certainly try. 'I' and 'My' are two different parts. 'I am the atma (soul)' is the truth. In this body, what is one's own? That is worth understanding. Sat-Chit-Anand (Existence-Consciousness-Bliss) is one's own form. Sat - means indestructible (true in all three times) was, is, and will be.

In this way, one is the 'pure atma (soul)'. One truly is the form of the atma. If one recognizes this, then no sorrow can touch them. And one's own form of atma is such that its inner peace never goes away. We understood about 'I', now let's understand the 'My' part. We say 'my' body. 'My' hands, 'my' feet. So wherever the word 'my' comes, it all goes into the 'non-soul' (anatma) category. Just as we say 'this is my house', the person living in the house is separate from the house. Similarly, 'this is my body'. When we say this, the 'conscious' element (chetan tattva), the 'pure atma', residing in the body is completely distinct from the body. And that is who we are. But due to our lack of 'self-realization' (atma-gnan), the two appear to be one and the same. And that which perceives them as one is the 'ego' (ahankar). The inanimate element, meaning (the body), is active due to the presence of the atma. "Awareness", "knowledge", "bliss" - these are all qualities of the atma. But the ego just assumes that 'I know'. Ego means 'illusion' (bhramti). Due to illusion, whatever action we perform, it is believed that 'I' am doing it. We are merely instruments. And yet, the feeling of doership (kartapanu) arises due to ego. If one gets out of doership, karma (bondage) is not created. When self-realization comes, it will help a little in understanding all this as it is. It is very difficult to remain constantly in self-realization. One can remain for a short while. Then the feeling of doership comes right back. To have inner samadhi (equanimity), to have constant inner tranquility, amidst adhi (mental suffering), vyadhi (physical suffering), and upadhi (external suffering), is the true happiness of the atma. To retain self-realization, practice daily. Choose any time that is convenient for you. Close your eyes and remind yourself that the atma is separate from the body. 'I am the atma', and I will not let the happiness-sorrow that is coming into my life affect me. This is to strengthen the understanding of self-realization. Then, if some inauspicious event has happened in our life, we remember it for our entire life. If such a major event has occurred, think about that event. Think in such a way that it is all happening at this very moment. Visualize it before your eyes, maintain the atma-bhav (feeling of being the soul), close your eyes and see. Then you will realize that even in the inauspicious event that occurred, there was good for me. How I got out of it. God got me out of this. In this way, thank God. Whatever happens, happens for the good. We realize this after it has happened. It might also happen that we were not able to get out of that event. It doesn't happen every time that everything turns out well. Many times, the same situation persists. At that time, one should think that it must be my prarabdha (destiny). Thank God by thinking, "Maharaj gave me the strength to bear the situation that has come." And always maintain the attitude that "God has given me more than my worth." When we keep this feeling of gratitude, agitation will reduce. This body, composed of ten indriyas (senses), man (mind), buddhi (intellect), chitt (consciousness), ahankar (ego), panchbhut (five elements), and panch-tanmatra (five subtle elements), is inanimate. What affection should one have for it? If we keep this understanding, worry and agitation will all decrease. And one gets freedom from doership and egoism. Not everything is in our hands. Sorrow and death cannot be avoided. God has given us the freedom to perform karma (actions). The freedom of the 'fruit of karma' is not in our hands. God has kept that with Himself. Whatever God does, He will do for the good. If we surrender the doership to God in this way, we can be free from stress and worry. A small child, if his father is holding his finger, has no worry. Why? Because the father will never let go of the child's hand. But when the child holds the father's finger, he might let go and run off upon seeing a sweet shop or toys in the market. But if the father holds, he doesn't let go. This whole world is like a market of maya (illusion). If we run after seeing perishable things, what is God's fault in that? God is ready to hold our hand. Like a child, surrender 100% and become such that God holds your hand. When God holds your hand, He will never let go. There are three things in this world: 'Ishwar' (God), 'Jiva' (soul), 'Maya' (illusion). In this, the 'Jiva' is in the middle. The jiva is attracted to God, because the jiva is a part of God. But the jiva has a habit that "it is more attracted to what it sees directly." So, naturally, it falls into the trap of maya, because maya is pratyaksh (directly visible). God is not pratyaksh. A momentary feeling arises for God. As long as one is in the temple, in satsang, one feels for God. After leaving the temple, the opposite happens. The attraction, the desire for God becomes momentary. And the feeling of doership arises. To remove the feeling of doership doesn't mean that one should do nothing at all. If we do nothing, God also won't help us. Only if we do some work, will help come. For example, if some woman is stringing a garland or doing some seva (service), we might feel like, "Let's go help." She was doing something, so we felt the desire to help. If she was just sitting idly, how would we help? In the same way, when a jiva does some good deed (satkarma) and calls out to God, then God comes to help. If we are just sitting idly, why will He come? Believing God to be the karta-harta (doer and non-doer) and believing one's welfare to be in God's will is the greatest attainment. When a play is going on, the time limit in the play is fixed. How long to stay on stage, what to say, as soon as the work is finished, one must clear the stage immediately. For all of us in this world, it is the same. What role to play, for how long to stay on this stage-like world, it is all pre-decided. So, never let go of God's hand. If the hand of the worldly father is let go and the child gets separated, he will be found in an hour or two. But if you let go of God's hand, you will have to wander through eighty-four lakh (8.4 million) life-forms. If we keep this understanding, a little fear will remain.

THE FAITHFUL DEVOTEE DADA KHACHAR

- Sankhyayogi Kokilaba (Surendranagar)

The Vachanamrut is the priceless scripture of the words from the holy mouth of Purushottam Shri Swaminarayan Bhagwan. This is a spiritual scripture. It is the essence of all scriptures. God has provided a wonderful resolution to all spiritual questions in it. Any mumukshu (seeker of liberation) gets true guidance for the jiv in simple language. Maharaj himself has come to this brahmand (universe) bringing his dham (abode), akshar-muktas (liberated souls), and his entire grandeur.

In Vachanamrut Loya-2, Shriji Maharaj asked a question: "In this satsang, when does a Hari Bhakta overcome the fear of death and believe his salvation to be assured even while in this body?" No one could answer. Then Shriji Maharaj said, "Four types of devotees do not have the fear of death. Among them, the first devotee is the vishwasu (faithful). He has attained extreme faith in the words of the manifest God and His sadhu (saint)." Therefore, I want to talk about just such a faithful devotee, whose fear of death was eradicated due to his faith in the words of God and the sadhu, and his firm conviction in the manifest God. And who felt krutarthpanu (a sense of having achieved life's purpose). The name of such a faithful devotee has been written on every page of the "Vachanamrut" by our Nand Santos. His spirit of surrender was unparalleled, which is why Maharaj tested him. "O Dada, this garas (estate) of yours, sign it all over to your sisters." Hearing Maharaj's words, Dada Khachar happily said, "Very well, Maharaj, I will write it." Saying so, he prepared the deed.

Then Maharaj said, "O Dada, a brother cannot live in his sisters' kingdom." Then Dada Khachar said, "O Maharaj! I will go to Kariyani and make a living by becoming a servant of Vasata Khachar." Hearing such words from Dada Khachar, Maharaj said, "We will give you one taydu (pony), sit on it and go." Saying so, he gave a pony. Sitting on it, he went as far as Radhavav. And Maharaj said to the people of Dada Khachar's house, "Dada Khachar has gone to Kariyani to live as a servant. What will you do?" Then the bai (lady, his wife) said, "O Maharaj! You have written the dharma (duties) of a pativrata (devout wife). In it, it is said that one must go wherever one's husband is. Therefore, I will also go there." Then Maharaj said, "Will you go walking, or will you need a vehicle?" Then the bai said, "If you give a vehicle, it is fine, otherwise I will go walking." Hearing the bai's words, he gave a vehicle. Sitting in it, she also went as far as Radhavav.

Then Maharaj said to Motiba and Laduba (Dada's sisters), "You have taken the kingdom, but when work comes up at the Bhavnagar court, you will have to go. Who will go?" Then the sisters said, "Maharaj, we will have to hire a servant." Then Maharaj said, "Dada Khachar is going to Kariyani to be a servant, call him back and hire him as a servant." Hearing Maharaj's words, the bais (sisters) said, "O Maharaj! Call him back." Then Maharaj sent a person to call Dada Khachar and said, "Come and be a servant in your sisters' (kingdom)." Then Dada Khachar and his wife started to return from Radhavav. Even after being tested in this way, Dada Khachar did not have the slightest doubt.

In this way, on days of festivals like Annakut, Janmashtami, Fuldolotsav, etc., at his home, (Maharaj) would tell Dada Khachar, "You vacate your house and go live in another house." Then he would go to another house. In this way, Maharaj kept changing Dada Khachar's lodgings. In 24 years, he made him change his lodgings 56 times. Seeing this, Muktanand Swami said, "O Maharaj, Dada Khachar is a darbar (chieftain). It is not right to change his lodgings so frequently." Then Maharaj said, "We are not changing his lodgings. We are examining his antahkaran (inner conscience). And as we kept giving commands, he became more and more doubtless. But he never doubted Maharaj's words. He never even said, 'At least let us eat our rotias (bread).'"

SHREE SWAMINARAYAN

Dear devotees, in the third Vachanamrut of Loya, Maharaj says, “For one who has firm conviction in God and His Sant, along with mahatmya-gnan (knowledge of their glory), what can he not do for the sake of God and for the sake of the Sant? For their sake, he forsakes family, forsakes kingdom, forsakes comfort, forsakes wealth, forsakes his wife, and if it is a woman, she forsakes her husband.” Saying this, he then listed the names of all Hari Bhaktas, and among them, he took Dada Khachar’s name. Similarly, in the 24th Vachanamrut of GadhadaAntya, (it is said) “Among the angs (virtues) that a Hari Bhakta possesses, we speak of the one virtue that is excellent.” In that, first, it is said that Dada Khachar has the ang (virtue) of vishwas (faith). Just see, what faith he must have had in Maharaj’s words, that God, being subdued by his devotion, stayed at his home.

RAMBAI OF KATHLAL

- Kanchanben Babubhai Adalja (Ratanpar, Mulidesh)

In Gujarat, there is a village called Kathlal. An elderly Brahmin woman named Rambai lived in that village. In the whole village, she was the only devotee of Shriji Maharaj. Therefore, people would mock her, ridicule her, and even insult her. But the old woman held no ill-will towards anyone. If people slandered her, the old woman would say, “I am weak and soft, that’s why people are making me strong in my devotion to God by doing this.” In her old age, the old woman had to do everything herself. She even had to go to the well herself to fetch water.

One time, Maharaj was traveling in Gujarat. While traveling, he passed by the outskirts of Kathlal. He had to reach another place in a hurry, so he did not enter the village. Women were drawing water at the well on the outskirts. They saw him. A little while later, the old woman Rambai came to the well to fetch water. After filling her pot, she placed the matlu (earthen pot) on her head. Just then, a woman said, “Your Swaminarayan just passed by here.”

As soon as she heard this, the old woman started running with the water-filled pot on her head and started shouting at the top of her voice: “Maharaj, stop! Stop!” Maharaj was on horseback and had many Hari Bhaktas with him. He heard these shouts. He immediately stopped his horse.

The old woman, out of breath, reached him. She was so winded that she could not stand. She sat down with the water pot still on her head. Then she put the pot down, joined her hands, and said: “Maharaj, you skipped my home and are just passing by?”

Maharaj said: “What to do? We have to reach another place in a hurry.” The old woman said: “Here, drink this water.” Maharaj drank water from the old woman’s pot. The old woman said: “Now the water in this pot has become prasadi (sanctified).” Maharaj smiled and said: “What will you do with this water?” The old woman said: “I will pour it into the village well! That way, the whole village will drink this prasadi water! Then I won’t be the only satsangi (devotee) in this village. There will be many. At that time, I will see how you skip my village and just pass by!”

The Hari Bhaktas standing there were stunned seeing the old woman’s faith, and Maharaj became very pleased. Maharaj blessed the old woman. “Ma, may your satsang flourish.” And the old woman’s satsang flourished so much that Maharaj himself, remembering her in the ‘Vachanamrut’, has said that a devotee of God should be like this old woman of Kathlal. If God protects the body, he feels no joy. And if he does not protect it, he feels no sorrow. Whether his body falls after being dragged, or a tiger eats him, a snake bites him, he is struck by a weapon, or he drowns in water, no matter how his body perishes, he understands only that “I am going to attain God’s dham (abode)!” Such One who worships God with determination is a devotee of God!

On another occasion, Maharaj has said in the ‘Vachanamrut’ that if a devotee of God, due to some circumstances, is about to be impaled on a shuli (spike), and even if We are standing right next to him at that time, a thought will not arise in that devotee’s heart that “It would be good if this God saves me from the pain of the shuli!” He will simply endure whatever suffering comes. God becomes very pleased with such devotees.

TAUGHT BRAVERY TO THE DEVOTEES - Bhavsar Pallaviben Vijaykumar (Langhnaj)

“When they came near the village, the Lord then spoke to the palas (attendants): ‘Go get beautiful, good sticks (soti); I have thought of playing patta (stick-fighting).’”

Maharaj told the parshads (attendants), “A thought occurs to Us. In the afternoon, the Rabari (herdsman) came with the buffaloes and you all shouted, from that it occurred to Us that everyone’s life must have ‘Shaurya’ - bravery. Bravery is a virtue. That is why it is said, ‘Peace is protected by bravery.’ One who lacks bravery has no peace in his life. He gets sacrificed somewhere. That is why all our Gods and Goddesses have weapons in their hands. Lord Shri Ramchandraj has a bow and arrow in his hand, Shri Krishna Prabhu has the Sudarshan Chakra in his hand. Bholanath (Shiva) has a trishul (trident) in his hand. Mataji (Goddess) has a sword in her hand. Why? By their will, the entire universe can be turned upside down. Yet, why do all the Gods and Avatars keep weapons in their hands? Devotees get inspiration from this that one must cultivate strength, one must learn bravery. If you don’t have bravery, you will be of no use. Neither of the home nor of the ghat (neither here nor there), neither of the country, nor of dharma (religion), you will be of no one. Bravery must be learned.

There is an old bhajan, ‘The path of Hari is for the brave’. That bhajan doesn’t say ‘The path of Hari is for the weak’; that hasn’t appeared anywhere. Swaminarayan Bhagwan tells the parshads that everyone has to take training for bravery. Then Shriji Maharaj had the parshads cut sticks from a tree. And said, “Now We will teach you the moves.” The stick starts to twirl, and you have to hit each other, yet not let it hurt. When the stick comes, how to block the incoming strike with the stick itself, in this way Shriji Maharaj taught the parshads to play patta. In times of unexpected calamity, one must at least know how to pick up a stick. Therefore, bravery is a virtue. And it is necessary for everyone. Bravery is necessary for the protection of the family, protection of the self, protection of dharma, protection of culture, protection of the country.

Shriji Maharaj himself started the game of patta with sticks along with the parshads.

એ તો નાવે દાવમાં દયાળ, એમાં શું આશ્ચર્ય છે.

“The infinite ocean of happiness for all, the indwelling Lord Bhagvant, He, the compassionate one, is not caught in the move, what is the great wonder in that?”

..... The parshads would strike with the sticks, but Shriji Maharaj would not be caught in anyone’s move. After training for about an hour, as they were walking, the village came near, so Maharaj said, “Now that’s enough. Because this is Langhnaj, be very careful. Stop the stick moves. Put down the sticks.” “Stop the game,” said the Lord, “The whole village will see.” It will not end well, the asurs (demons/wicked people) will see it and feel malice.”

These villagers will slander, saying, “This Swaminarayan is coming while fighting.” So Maharaj stopped the patta game. Then they entered the village of Langhnaj.
